OUR PILGRIMAGE OF FAITH

APPEAL PARISH GOAL is $20,

550 and we have raised $12,

145 which is 59% of the total.

There are only 4 months left in the 2020 campaign.

PILGRIMAGE OF FAITH APPEAL

Dear Holy Child Parishioners,

Greetings!

I am praying that you are safe and healthy as we continue to live life despite the restrictions around.

This year has been quite a struggle for every one of us. The pandemic made it difficult for us to gather as one community in our Church. Yet, there is always a way to show our support with another. Prayer helps us go through the ups and downs both in personal, spiritual, and social aspects of our lives.

I am very much aware that this is a tough year for us, yet I would like to appeal to you once again for your generosity. Financially, our parish, based on our book keeper's report is so far quite good despite the lower collection because of this pandemic. We do everything to keep afloat.

Recently, the diocesan office of Pilgrimage of Faith Appeal reminds the parish that to this date, the parish has raised only $12, 145 which is 59% of our $ 20, 550 parish goal. There are only four months left in the 2020 POF campaign. If we cannot attain our parish goal, the POF office will take the remaining balance from our parish funds. We still have time; we can still do it.

Thank you so much for your generosity. Your kindness is much appreciated. You can send/mail your donation to the parish or send it directly to the chancery;

LIFE CHAIN 2020 IS A GO!

The Kelowna Right to Life Society is going ahead with Life Chain 2020, with a few changes to accommodate government mandated-restrictions on large events.

The Life Chain will be set up along the same route as always (Hwy 97 near Gordon Avenue), but we will provide 5 different locations to register and pick up your sign (see poster above for locations and please go to the location corresponding to the first letter of your last name).

We will be required to record the name and number of each participant, physical distancing is required, and we will provide masks and hand sanitizer for your use.

We need some help. Please volunteer in one two capacities to ensure Life Chain 2020 is a big success!

1. YES, I want to be a Life Chain Representative for my church. Please reply to this email and tell me which church you are part of.
2. YES, I want to volunteer as a marshal at Life Chain 2020. Please reply to this email and let us know.

Thank you and please stay tuned for any changes to the status or structure of LIFE CHAIN 2020 that may be required due to the Covid-19 situation.

September 16th Flag Display in Kelowna

The Kelowna Right to Life Society will be hosting a huge pro-life flag display in the heart of Kelowna on Wednesday, September 16 from 8 am - 5 pm. We need volunteers to help us set up 10,000 flags - each one representing 10 babies killed by abortion each year in Canada - in the morning (7:30 - 9 am for set-up) and take them down in the evening between 5 and 5:30. Please help us with this impressive undertaking!

Call 250 870-4103 or simply reply to this email to let us know you want to volunteer!

Delta Hospice Society - most urgent appeal!

from Frank Wagner

to Archbishop Richard Gagnon and all Canadian Catholic Bishops

re: Delta Hospice Society

Dear Archbishop Gagnon and all Canadian Catholic Bishops.

It appears that the Delta Hospice (DH) is the last bastion of euthanasia free Canadian hospices.
The Delta Hospice Society (DHS), which operates DH needs your urgent help.

This is my third appeal to you to join the DHS. I have seen no response from you and so I am obliged to contact you again. Please join the DHS and ask all Catholics in your (Arch)Diocese to do likewise. If we do not win this membership drive there will likely be no euthanasia free palliative care facility in Canada.

The following email is from Angelina Ireland, the President of the DHS. It describes the battle for control of the DH and gives step by step instructions for completing the membership application form which is in the attachment. The form can be completed on line or printed off.

Frank Wagner
your fellow member of the Church Militant

We were taken to the BC Supreme Court on June 12th by 3 Society members to stop an Extraordinary General Meeting we had called asking the membership to change the Constitution and Bylaws. If the resolutions carried it would have changed the Society into a Christian organization thus allowing us to claim a faith-based exemption from performing Maid (Euthanasia). We have evidence that these 3 petitioners were colluding with Dying with Dignity Canada. Further, they demanded we accept all the membership applications they had solicited from people intent on overthrowing the Board in order to implement euthanasia.

Justice Sheila Fitzpatrick of the BC Supreme Court ruled against us in the extreme. We were forced to cancel our meeting and she ordered us to accept all applicants who give us $10.00, regardless of their intent, as the Board has no discretion to screen members applying to our private Society.

We have appealed the forced acceptance of all applications Order.

*Our appeal will be heard on Monday, August 17th. They expedited our case.
Apparently, we have 10 magical palliative care beds and all other court business must be swept aside in order to deal with us deviants who refuse to permit euthanasia inside our Hospice.*

Since the Fitzpatrick ruling, the 3 petitioners have launched a local membership drive campaign and signed up many, many people (800 at last count) with the intent to overthrow the Board and implement euthanasia into the Hospice.

We understand that the only way to survive this potential hostile takeover is to launch our own membership drive campaign. We have opened up our membership across Canada.

Our only defence is to sign up members that are committed to Hospice Sanctuary and to protecting palliative care from the onslaught of euthanasia. We know that our situation will set precedent across Canada for other hospice and palliative care facilities. Therefore, we must continue to fight and we must win.

Would you consider sending our membership application form to your members and encouraging them to sign up? It is $10.00 and can be done with the attached fillable form.

Given C-7 has almost become law in Canada we believe this mobilization effort to attract members nationwide will help to shine a light on the efforts to normalize euthanasia as well.

With a large membership base, we can also share court documents and letters from the BC NDP government as they move to expropriate our private assets in February, 2021.

*Thank you for your ongoing support.
We know we cannot survive without the help of our friends across Canada.*

A word on the attached fillable membership form. There is a secure link in order to pay the membership fee of $10.00 by credit card. For "Care Recipient" and "Billing name "put your name (applying member). For invoice # put "membership". We understand it works best being accessed via Google Chrome.

MESSAGE OF HIS HOLINESS
POPE FRANCIS
FOR WORLD MISSION DAY
2020

Here am I, send me (Is 6:8)

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

I wish to express my gratitude to God for the commitment with which the Church throughout the world carried out the Extraordinary Missionary Month last October. I am convinced that it stimulated missionary conversion in many communities on the path indicated by the theme: "Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World".

In this year marked by the suffering and challenges created by the Covid-19 pandemic, the missionary journey of the whole Church continues in light of the words found in the account of the calling of the prophet Isaiah: "Here am I, send me" (6:8). This is the ever new response to the Lord's question: "Whom shall I send?" (ibid.). This invitation from God's merciful heart challenges both the Church and humanity as a whole in the current world crisis. "Like the disciples in the Gospel we were caught off guard by an unexpected, turbulent storm. We have realized that we are on the same boat, all of us fragile and disoriented, but at the same time important and needed, all of us called to row together, each of us in need of comforting the other. On this boat... are all of us. Just like those disciples, who spoke anxiously with one voice, saying 'We are perishing' (v. 38), so we too have realized that we cannot go on thinking of ourselves, but only together can we do this" (Meditation in Saint Peter's Square, 27 March 2020). We are indeed frightened, disoriented and afraid. Pain and death make us experience our human frailty, but at the same time remind us of our deep desire for life and liberation from evil. In this context, the call to mission, the invitation to step out of ourselves for love of God and neighbour presents itself as an opportunity for sharing, service and intercessory prayer. The mission that God entrusts to each one of us leads us from fear and introspection to a renewed realization that we find ourselves precisely when we give ourselves to others.

In the sacrifice of the cross, where the mission of Jesus is fully accomplished (cf. Jn 19:28-30), God shows us that his love is for each and every one of us (cf. Jn 19:26-27). He asks us to be personally willing to be sent, because he himself is Love, love that is always "on mission", always reaching out in order to give life. Out of his love for us, God the Father sent his Son Jesus (cf. Jn 3:16). Jesus is the Father's Missionary: his life and ministry reveal his total obedience to the Father's will (cf. Jn 4:34; 6:38; 8:12-30; Heb 10:5-10). Jesus, crucified and risen for us, draws us in turn into his mission of love, and with his Spirit which enlivens the Church, he makes us his disciples and sends us on a mission to the world and to its peoples.

"The mission, the 'Church on the move', is not a programme, an enterprise to be carried out by sheer force of will. It is Christ who makes the Church go out of herself. In the mission of evangelization, you move because the Holy Spirit pushes you, and carries you" (Senza di Lui non possiamo fare nulla: Essere missionari oggi nel mondo. Una conversazione con Gianni Valente, Libreria Editrice Vaticana: San Paolo, 2019, 16-17). God always loves us first and with this love comes to us and calls us. Our personal vocation comes from the fact that we are sons and daughters of God in the Church, his family, brothers and sisters in that love that Jesus has shown us. All, however, have a human dignity founded on the divine invitation to be children of God and to become, in the sacrament of Baptism and in the freedom of faith, what they have always been in the heart of God.

Life itself, as a gift freely received, is implicitly an invitation to this gift of self: it is a seed which, in the baptized, will blossom as a response of love in marriage or in virginity for the kingdom of God. Human life is born of the love of God, grows in love and tends towards love. No one is excluded from the love of God, and in the holy sacrifice of Jesus his Son on the cross, God conquered sin and death (cf. Rom 8:31-39). For God, evil – even sin – becomes a challenge to respond with even greater love (cf. Mt 5:38-48; Lk 22:33-34). In the Paschal Mystery, divine mercy heals our wounded humanity and is poured out upon the whole universe. The Church, the universal sacrament of God's love for the world, continues the mission of Jesus in history and sends us everywhere so that, through our witness of faith and the proclamation of the Gospel, God may continue to manifest his love and in this way touch and transform hearts, minds, bodies, societies and cultures in every place and time.

Mission is a free and conscious response to God's call. Yet we discern this call only when we have a personal relationship of love with Jesus present in his Church. Let us ask ourselves: are we prepared to welcome the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives, to listen to the call to mission, whether in our life as married couples or as consecrated persons or those called to the ordained ministry, and in all the everyday events of life? Are we willing to be sent forth at any time or place to witness to our faith in God the merciful Father, to proclaim the Gospel of salvation in Jesus Christ, to share the divine life of the Holy Spirit by building up the Church? Are we, like Mary, the Mother of Jesus, ready to be completely at the service of God's will (cf. Lk 1:38)? This interior openness is essential if we are to say to God: "Here am I, Lord, send me" (cf. Is 6:8). And this, not in the abstract, but in this chapter of the life of the Church and of history.

Understanding what God is saying to us at this time of pandemic also represents a challenge for the Church's mission. Illness, suffering, fear and isolation challenge us. The poverty of those who die alone, the abandoned, those who have lost their jobs and income, the homeless and those who lack food challenge us. Being forced to observe social distancing and to stay at home invites us to rediscover that we need social relationships as well as our communal relationship with God. Far from increasing mistrust and indifference, this situation should make us even more attentive to our way of relating to others. And prayer, in which God touches and moves our hearts, should make us ever more open to the need of our brothers and sisters for dignity and freedom, as well as our responsibility to care for all creation. The impossibility of gathering as a Church to celebrate the Eucharist has led us to share the experience of the many Christian communities that cannot celebrate Mass every Sunday. In all of this, God's question: "Whom shall I send?" is addressed once more to us and awaits a generous and convincing response: "Here am I, send me!" (Is 6:8). God continues to look for those whom he can send forth into the world and to the nations to bear witness to his love, his deliverance from sin and death, his liberation from evil (cf. Mt 9:35-38; Lk 10:1-12).

The celebration of World Mission Day is also an occasion for reaffirming how prayer, reflection and the material help of your offerings are so many opportunities to participate actively in the mission of Jesus in his Church. The charity expressed in the collections that take place during the liturgical celebrations of the third Sunday of October is aimed at supporting the missionary work carried out in my name by the Pontifical Mission Societies, in order to meet the spiritual and material needs of peoples and Churches throughout the world, for the salvation of all.

May the Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Star of Evangelization and Comforter of the Afflicted, missionary disciple of her Son Jesus, continue to intercede for us and sustain us.

Rome, Saint John Lateran, 31 May 2020, Solemnity of Pentecost
