World Day of the Sick, February 11, 2020,

Vatican news:

“Come to me, all you who labour and are burdened, and I will give you rest” (Mt 11:28)

Consoled by Christ to be ourselves the consolation of the afflicted, Matthew’s verse, though it may be read as addressing primarily sick or suffering persons, should correctly be understood as also addressing health workers. Although traditionally we have understood care to be provided by the healthy towards the sick, we should actually understand care a relationship among the sick, as health workers, in addition to their burden of care, are also exposed to illness, which if it isn’t physical, and temporary, may be spiritual or psychological, deriving from common daily life experiences.

Health pastoral care is without a doubt directed towards those who, in their suffering, receive care, but it must actually begin with the health workers or volunteers who care for them. We cannot seek to give solace in Christ if we have not personally received solace.

Rachel’s Corner

“I am going to continue releasing my pain and guilt and be free. I feel much more relaxed now than when I first arrived. I had no idea there were any options to being able to be free of what I was carrying.”

- Testimonial

Relief for what you feel from having participated in an abortion decision is a process, and it can begin by attending a Rachel’s Vineyard Retreat weekend of healing. Come and be freed of the burden.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCIL

A number of general membership vacancies on Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) have arisen as a result of people moving from Summerland to new opportunities in other communities. Parish Pastoral Council is reaching out to our parish members and asking each of you to prayerfully consider putting your name forward for consideration.

The Pastoral Council is called upon to share with the Pastor the building up of the body of Christ and is concerned with the overall welfare of the parish family. It addresses all aspects of parish life and is responsible for liaising and coordinating with various ministries and committees of the parish.

Holy Child’s Parish Pastoral Council’s role, under the direction of the Pastor, is to be the central leadership and planning body of the parish as a whole. Its purpose is to foster participation and engagement of all parishioners in parish life. Representatives from our Liturgy, Youth and Development and Peace Ministries, as well as, the CWL, the Knights of Columbus and Holy Cross School Council also join in on the meetings. The Pastoral Council typically meets once a month and twice a year meets jointly with the Parish Finance Committee.

If you have any questions or would like any more information or would like to have your name considered for one of the vacancies, please speak to any of the current PPC members: Bernadine Jacobs (Chair), Michelle Robertson, Doug Chappell, Mary-Anne Smirle, Roy Elander
