Refugee Family Update

The Al Hamwii family continues to thrive in their new home in Penticton. Oubyda, Rim, Amer, Abdlrahman and baby Noor are rapidly approaching their one year anniversary in Canada. Oubyda and his sons are becoming more and more proficient in English, and now that Noor is more settled, Rim is enjoying a return to her English classes. Thanks to the generosity of parishioners in Kelowna, the Al Hamwiis are the recipients of a donated van that has provided the family with means to develop even more independence.
Oubyda continues to work part-time in the hotel industry while he looks for full-time employment.
Both boys are doing extremely well in school and enjoy their soccer and swimming pursuits.
Please continue to hold this family in your prayers and if you have any questions or employment suggestions please do not hesitate to contact Mary-Anne Smirle.
